

IN THE CLAIMS:

1. (cancelled)
2. (cancelled)
3. (original) Process for making a powder of substantially spherical particles comprising a compound selected from the group consisting of azelaic acid, sebacic acid, undecanedioic acid, dodecanedioic acid, brassylic acid, and the anhydrides of said acids, said process comprising spraying molten compound from a nozzle into a walled chamber to form a spray comprising droplets of said compound, said chamber being sized to allow said droplets to solidify before they contact the wall of said chamber.
4. (cancelled)